

OPENING HOURS

Tuesday to Sunday and on holidays	10-18h
📅 December 24 th and 31 st	10-14h

TICKETS AND ADMISSION

Adults	€ 8,-
Senior citizens	€ 6,-
Groups of 10 or more, per person	€ 6,-
Pupils, university students	€ 3,-

The 'Niederösterreich Card' is accepted for one free admission.

GUIDED TOURS

German: Saturday, Sunday and on holidays	14h
English: every 2nd Sunday of the month	11h
Guided tour ticket	€ 3,-

Individual guided tours available on request.

GETTING THERE

BADNER BAHN

From 'Wien Oper' (Vienna State Opera) to terminal station Baden 'Josefsplatz', followed by a three-minute walk to Beethovenhaus Baden.

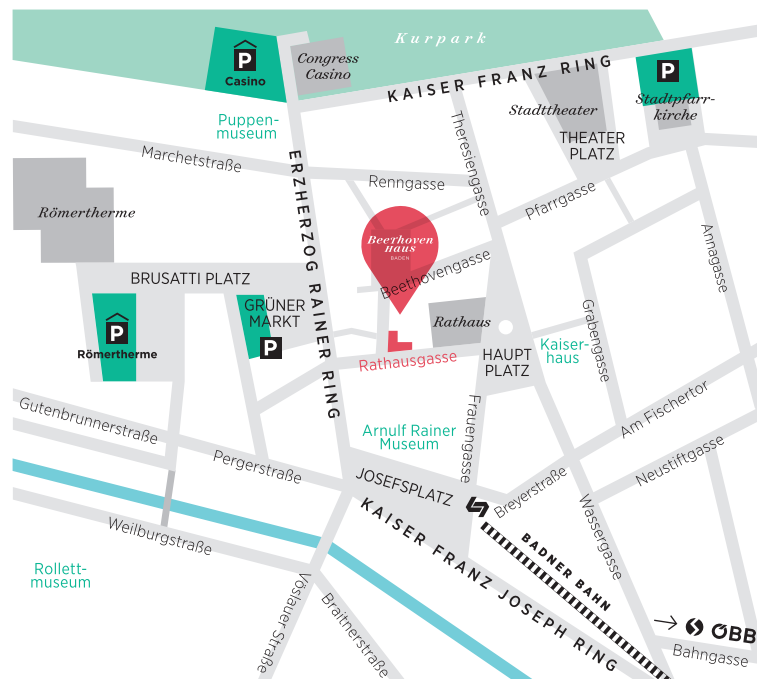

TRAIN

From Vienna 'Hauptbahnhof' to Baden station, followed by a ten-minute walk to Beethovenhaus Baden.

CAR

Exit A2 Baden toward city center, parking available at 'Römertherme' and at the parking area behind the casino.

Baden bei Wien, city centre / orientation map

Beethoven Haus

BADEN

Rathausgasse 10, 2500 Baden bei Wien
+43 2252 86 800-630

willkommen@beethovenhaus-baden.at www.beethovenhaus-baden.at

Beethoven Haus

BADEN

Welcome to Beethovenhaus Baden

Ludwig van Beethoven regularly took the waters in Baden. When Emperor Franz I spent his summers there with his family, Baden was bustling with members of the high aristocracy and upper middle class, including patrons of the great composer. In the summers of 1821, 1822, and 1823, Beethoven lodged at Rathausgasse 10, where he composed important sections of his Ninth Symphony.

Emperor Franz I and his wife, Carolina Augusta

In Beethoven's time, Rathausgasse 10 was owned by a copper-smith and the composer lodged in the upper floor.

Since autumn 2014, the Beethovenhaus Baden has been home to a new type of museum.

Visitors can look forward to an audio adventure and the chance for an in-depth encounter with the Ninth Symphony. The life led by the genius in Baden and its environs is vividly presented in compelling pictorial exhibits.

The original wall painting in Beethoven's summer apartment was restored in 2014. The museum is the only one of its kind in the world and offers visitors an opportunity to immerse themselves in the composer's life.

The museum shop located on the ground floor offers a wide range of souvenirs, including a fine selection of CDs.

Be Beethoven's guest

The recovered wall painting in Beethoven's living area.

Exhibition area dedicated to the «Ninth»

Entrance area and museum shop